The inter-university programme accreditation scope is the award of dual degrees based on joint provision of the programmes synergising faculty, international infrastructure, e-learning provision and joint examination commissions or jurors.

The programme accreditation includes distance education delivery, campus based delivery, and hybrid delivery at approved locations as well as individual courses, workshops, and seminars related to the programmes. The programmes have been accredited as stand-alone and as a collaborative provision with partner universities. UNIVERSIDAD AZTECA degrees are accredited as equivalent to respective degrees awarded by UCN.

Universidad Central de Nicaragua UCN, authorised by CNU, established by Parliament Resolution and Presidential Decree, audited by CNEA quality assurance, accredited by ASIC (UK) as Premier University and a Member of IAU, is a fully autonomous recognised Nicaraguan private University entitled to recognise programmes and qualifications in accordance with applicable laws in Nicaragua.
